

The Democrats have backed a fictional characterization of our current President in Fahrenheit 911. Michael Moore has negotiated with movie rental outlets to let americans see the video for free the 2 weeks prior to the election. I don't think the FCC should stop any sort of documentary on someone who could potentially lead this country!!!!!!!